

Live a Little!

NOTE TO GUARDIANS AND STUDENTS

_____ is arranging a trip for students to go to Treetop Adventures on _____ 20____. The students will be participating in the following Eco-Adventures activity/activities:

This signed form is required for all students who wish to participate in this education program. It should be understood that the purpose of this excursion is educational.

INHERENT RISKS

There are potential risks, dangers and hazards associated with the participation in Eco-Adventure Activities which are beyond the control of Treetop Adventures. Falls, abrasions, and other incidents may occur which result in serious injury or death. Participants must assume the inherent risks of the Eco-Adventure activity/activities that they are participating in.

Those participating in the Aerial Climb are obliged to read the rules posted on site prior and must successfully complete the Orientation prior to participating in Aerial Climb activities. Primary Schools and Special Needs Classrooms located within a hour driving radius of Sault Ste. Marie will receive a pre-climb presentation in the classroom from a Treetop Adventures qualified guide a few days prior to climbing.

Following all rules and procedures can reduce the risk of injury. All guides have the right to remove participants from the Eco-Adventure activity that they are participating in if they are acting unsafe. Refunds will not be provided if you have been asked to leave an Eco-Adventure activity for inappropriate or unsafe behaviour.

EQUIPMENT

Treetop Adventures provides all necessary climbing equipment. Participants must use their equipment and always be attached to the safety cables as instructed during the pre-climbing orientation. Treetop Adventures is not responsible for any injury or death that occurs as a result of the participant not using the equipment according to instructions provided during the pre-climbing orientation. The equipment when used as instructed reduces the risk of injury when falling.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I, the guardian of _____, completely understand that the above paragraphs constitute a covenant and a promise on my part to fully discharge all of the above named parties from any and all liability of any kind for injuries, loss, damage or death which may result from my participation in the Eco-Adventure Activities, unless such injury, loss, damage or death is resulting from the sole negligence of Treetop Adventures.
